BEFORE THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

In the Matter of Request for Comment on Proposed Regulation Implementing Limitations on Terms of Consumer Credit Extended to Service Members and Dependents

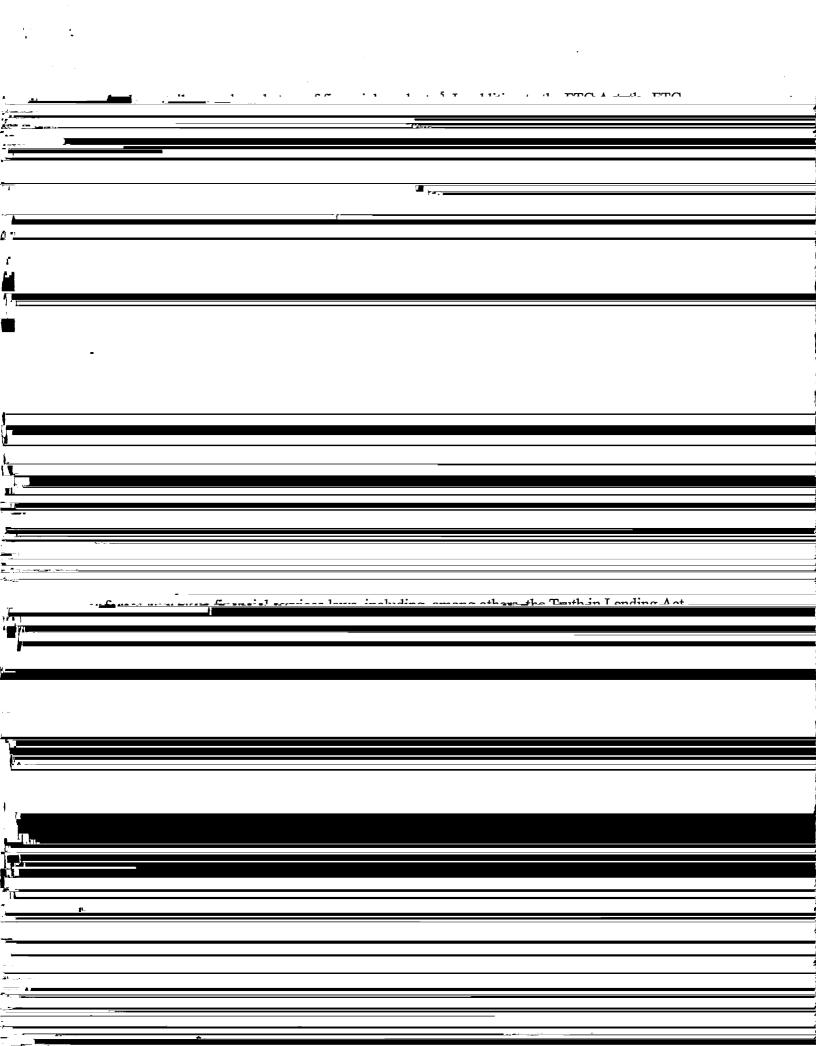

Docket No. DOD-2006-OS-0216

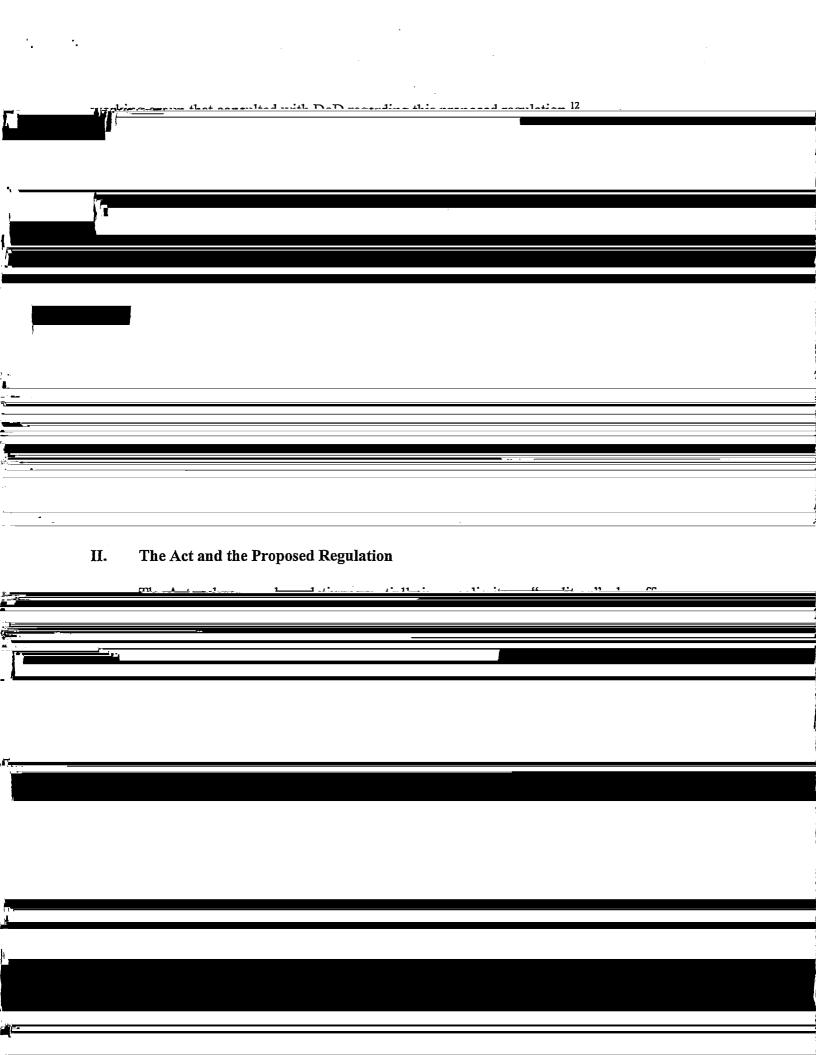

Comments of the Staff of the Bureau of Consumer Protection, Office of Policy Planning, and the Bureau of Economics of the Federal Trade Commission

June 11, 2007*

^{*} These comments represent the views of the staff of the Bureau of Consumer Protection, Office of Policy Planning, and the Bureau of Economics of the Federal Trade Commission. They are not necessarily the views of the Commission or any individual Commissioner. The Commission has, however, voted to authorize the staff to submit these comments.

I. Introduction its regulations to implement the military lending consumer protections of the John Warner National Defense Authorization Act of Fiscal Year 2007, section 670, "Limitations on Terms of lending affecting the military ("DoD Report").21 DoD's Report noted:

	Military families have characteristics that can make them a market of choice for predatory lenders. Forty-eight percent of enlisted Service members are less than 25 years and typically without a lot of experience in managing finances.
