COMPLAINT

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Brian Coryat, individually and doing business as Enterprising Solutions ("respondent"), has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, alleges:

PARAGRAPH ONE: Respondent Brian Coryat is an individual doing business as Enterprising Solutions. His principal office or place of business is located at 6 Harbor Way, Suite 194, Santa Barbara, California 93109.

PARAGRAPH TWO: Respondent is engaged in the advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, and distribution of various products, including, but not limited to, The Credit Repair Kit, and business opportunities, including, but not limited to, the Credit Repair Agency business opportunity, to the public.

PARAGRAPH THREE: The acts and practices of respondent alleged in this complaint have been in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in Section 4 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

THE CREDIT REPAIR KIT

PARAGRAPH FOUR: Respondent has disseminated or has caused to be disseminated advertisements, including advertisements through the Internet, for "The Credit Repair Kit." These advertisements include, but are not necessarily limited to, the attached Exhibit 1, which states, in part:

PARAGRAPH FIVE: Through the use of the statements contained in the advertisements referred to in PARAGRAPH FOUR, including but not necessarily limited to the advertisement attached as Exhibit 1, respondent has represented, directly or by implication, that consumers can remove bankruptcies, judgments, liens, repossessions, late payments, and other adverse items of information from their credit reports even where such information is accurate and not obsolete.

PARAGRAPH SIX: In truth and in fact, most consumers cannot remove bankruptcies, judgments, liens, repossessions, late payments, and other adverse items of information from their credit reports where such information is accurate and not obsolete. Therefore, the representation set forth in PARAGRAPH FIVE was, and is, false and misleading.

THE CREDIT REPAIR AGENCY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

PARAGRAPH SEVEN: Respondent has disseminated or has caused to be disseminated

PARAGRAPH ELEVEN: In truth and in fact, at the time he made the representation set forth in PARAGRAPH EIGHT, respondent did not possess and rely upon a reasonable basis that substantiated such representations. Therefore, the representation set forth in PARAGRAPH TEN was, and is, false and misleading.

PARAGRAPH TWELVE: The acts and practices of respondent as alleged in this complaint constitute unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce in violation of Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

THEREFORE, the Federal Trade Commission this 10th day of June, 1996, has issued this complaint against respondent.

By the Commission.
