

ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED CONSENT ORDER

COMMENT

TO AID PUBLIC C

subject to final approval as a consent order. The Federal Trade Commission has consented to the proposed consent order. A consent order is a final order of the Commission that is subject to public comment for thirty (30) days for the public record. The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record. The consent order will become final if no comments are received. If comments are received, the Commission will withdraw from the agreement and make final the agreement's proposed order.

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

