ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The parties shall serve the Administrative Law Judge with two courtesy copies of all papers filed with the Office of the Secretary.

2. The procedure for marking of exhibits referred to in the adjudicative proceeding shall be as follows: Both sides shall number their exhibits with a single series of consecutive numbers. Complaint Counsel's exhibits shall bear the designation CX and respondents' exhibits shall bear the designation

~~only the first name of the exhibit with the appropriate designation (e.g. CX 1).~~ bear a consecutive Bates number or some other consecutive page number, counsel shall mark each page and each back side of each page containing relevant matter with CX-1-A through CX-1-Z; items

All exhibit numbers must be accounted for, even if a particular number is not actually used at also prepares a list of its exhibits indicating that CA-2, CA-4 and CA-6 were never designated as trial exhibits. Using this example, in preparing the set of original exhibits to give to the court reporter, Complaint Counsel must indicate that CX-2, CX-4 and CX-6 were never designated as trial exhibits by inserting in their place a blank piece of paper, tab, or other method.

3. At the final prehearing conference, counsel will be required to introduce all exhibits they intend to introduce at trial. Counsel will further be required to give the originals of exhibits to the court reporter, which the court reporter will keep. In addition to providing the original exhibits to the court reporter at the final prehearing conference, counsel must bring to the hearing one copy of their exhibits for each of the following: the court reporter, the Administrative Law Judge, the Administrative Law Judge's attorney advisor, and the witness. Counsel will present the copy to each of the above when using it, and then take back the copy when finished. Counsel may agree among themselves on the method by which they wish to exchange exhibits with each other.

4. Complaint Counsel and Respondents' counsel shall produce to each other copies of all documents and data compilations identified as described in the parties' initial disclosures.

September 30, 2001, subject to the entry of a Protective Order.

5. The parties shall serve all discovery requests on each other in both hard copy (paper) and electronic format (disk or e-mail). Each response and/or objection to each discovery request shall be preceded by the specific discovery request to which the answer pertains. The parties shall serve on responsibilities, responses and answers with information available to each of them, such interrogatory will count as one interrogatory served by Complaint Counsel.

7. The parties shall serve upon one another, at the time of issuance, copies of all subpoenas duces tecum and subpoenas ad testificandum. Counsel scheduling depositions shall immediately notify
