[Redacted section]

AHP represents that it has been producing documents Complaint Counsel a rolling basis since June and detailing the lengths to which it has gone to comply with Complaint Counsel's broad and extensive document requests. AHP states that it expects to fully complete its production before October 3, 2001 and that it will make a custodian of documents available for deposition during the week of October 8, 2001.

If AHP abides by these representations, Complaint Counsel's motion is moot. Accordingly, the motion to compel is DENIED.
