- In connection with the labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution or any product or service in or affecting commerce, there shall be no misrepresentation made in any manner, expressly or by implication, regarding the existence, contents, validity, results, conclusions, or interpretations of any test, study, or research.
- In connection with the labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any product or service in or affecting commerce, there shall be no representation in any manner, expressly or by implication, that:
  - (1) Any user testimonial or endorsement of the product reflects the actual and current opinions, findings, beliefs, or experiences of the user; or
  - (2) The experience represented by any user testimonial or endorsement of the product represents the typical or ordinary experience of members of the public who use the product, unless:
    - (a) The representation is true and, at the time it is made, the business possesses and relies upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that substantiates the representation; or
    - (b) The business discloses clearly and prominently, and in close proximity to the endorsement or testimonial, either:
      - (i) what the generally expected results would be for users of the product; or
      - (ii) the limited applicability of the endorser's experience to what consumers may generally expect to achieve, that is, that consumers should not expect to experience similar results.

ANY VIOLATION OF THIS AGREEMENT COULD RESULT IN SUBSTANTIAL
