UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ENTRY OF REVISED SCHEDULING ORDER

After discussion between Complaint Counsel and counsel for Respondent Rambus Inc. (“Rambus”), Rambus files this Unopposed Motion for Entry of Revised Scheduling Order. As described below, the proposed Scheduling Order would affect only three dates set out in the Second Revised Scheduling Order.

On January 15, 2003, Your Honor issued the Second Revised Scheduling Order, which continued the hearing date and most of the remaining pre-hearing deadlines by approximately three weeks. Counsel for the parties subsequently met and conferred and agreed that because fact discovery will not close until February 24, 2003, and because exhibit lists are not scheduled to be exchanged until March 12, 2003, it is appropriate to continue: (1) the deadline under 16 C.F.R. 3.45(b) for providing notice to parties producing confidential documents of an intent to offer said documents into evidence; (2) the related deadline for motions seeking in camera treatment of confidential documents; and (3) the deadline for filing motions for summary decision.

The proposed revised Scheduling Order, which is attached, moves: (1) the deadline for providing notice under 16 C.F.R. 3.45(b) from January 29, 2003 to
