

information based, in whole or part, on various exhibits, testimony and filings that the Administrative Law Judge received on the in camera record of this proceeding.

In making a determination to release in camera information in the course of an adjudicative proceeding, the Commission balances the potential harm of such release to the protected party against the substantial interest in making publicly available the factual background underlying a Commission decision. Orkin Exterminating Co., 108 F.T.C. 147 (1986). Public knowledge of such information both permits improved evaluation of the fairness and wisdom of a given Commission decision and provides clearer guidance to affected parties.
