

[Public]

NTSP has no objections to Complaint Counsel's Motion for the Issuance of Subpoenas Ad Testificandum, provided that Respondent's Motion for the Issuance of Subpoenas Ad Testificandum are similarly unopposed.

Respectfully submitted,

Gregory S. C. Huffman
William M. Katz, Jr.
Gregory D. Binns

THOMPSON & KNIGHT LLP
1700 Pacific Avenue, Suite 3300
Dallas TX 75201-4693
214.969.1700
214.969.1751 - Fax
gregory.huffman@tklaw.com
william.katz@tklaw.com
gregory.binns@tklaw.com

IN THE MATTER OF

NORTH TEXAS SPECIALTY PHYSICIANS, A CORPORATION.

Respondent North Texas Specialty Physicians filed a Consolidated Motion for the Issuance of Subpoenas Ad Testificandum and Response to Complaint Counsel's Motion for Issuance of Subpoenas Ad Testificandum on April 19, 2004. NTSP requests the issuance of four subpoenas ad testificandum to be issue to: Jim C. Mosley, David M. Roberts, David W. Ellis, and John Lovelady. Each of these individuals is located within the United States. The testimony of each of these individuals is reasonably relevant to NTSP's defense. Therefore, the conditions of Rule 3.34(a)(2) of the Federal Trade Commission's Rules of Practice for Adjudicative Proceedings are satisfied, and Respondent's motion is GRANTED

Ordered:

D. Michael Chappell
Administrative Law Judge

Date:

Jim C. Mosley, Benefits Consultant
Effective Plan Management, Inc.
104 Houston Street, Suite B
Roanoke, Texas 76262

David M. Roberts, Market Network Head, Network Management
AETNA, Inc.
2777 Stemmons Freeway, Suite 300
Dallas, Texas 75207

John Lovelady, Vice President
PacifiCare
5001 LBJ Freeway, Suite 600
Dallas, Texasw 75244

Dave W. Ellis, Senior Medical Director
United HealthCare
5800 Granite Parkway, Suite 900
Plano, Texas 75024