

Citizens for Voluntary Trade (CVT) respectfully moves, under 16 C.F.R. § 3.52(j), for leave to include the nullification of lawfully-obtained patents poses a substantial threat to property rights guaranteed by the Constitution. More importantly, the economic and ethical principles used by the Commission in deciding this case will affect the future protection of all constitutional rights. Accordingly, CVT has a direct interest in en