

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Co., 97 F.T.C. 116, 118 (1981); In re Int'l Ass. of Conf. Interpreters, 1996 FTC LEXIS 298, *13-14 (June 26, 1996).

III.

Respondents, on January 4, 2005, filed a motion seeking in camera treatment. On February 3, 2005, Respondents filed a supplemental memorandum on in camera treatment and a motion for leave to file the supplemental memorandum. On February 7, 2005, Respondents filed a consent motion for leave to file revised exhibits to the supplemental motion. The motions for leave are GRANTED. Respondents' supplemental memorandum limits the number of documents for which in camera treatment is sought and requests in camera treatment only for the specific pages containing in camera material. Respondents seek in camera treatment for periods motion for in camera treatment.

Respondents' motion provides declarations of Joseph Golbus, President of Evanston Northwestern Healthcare Group; Kenneth Herlin, partner at Forest & Young; Jeffrey Willbroad

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

VI.

Documents that have documents or information that 1 1 1 1

by this Order shall inform its testifying current or former employees that in camera treatment has been extended to the material described in this Order. At the time that any documents that have been granted in camera treatment are offered into evidence or before any of the information contained therein is referred to in court, the parties shall identify such documents and the subject matter therein as in evidence in Court.