DECISION AND ORDER

The Federal Trade Commission (“Commission”) having heretofore issued its Complaint charging, inter alia, ENH Medical Group, Inc. (“ENH Medical Group”) with violating Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 45 (“FTC Act”) (“Count III”); and

Evanston Northwestern Healthcare Corporation (“ENH”), ENH Medical Group, and ENH Faculty Practice Associates (“Faculty Practice Associates”), their attorneys, and counsel for the Commission having thereafter executed an Agreement Containing Consent Order to Cease and Desist (“Consent Agreement”), containing an admission by ENH and ENH Medical Group, referred to hereinafter collectively as “Respondent,” of all the jurisdictional facts, solely as those facts relate to Count III of the Complaint, set forth in the aforesaid Complaint, a statement that the signing of said Consent Agreement is only for the purpose of settling claims, as alleged in Count III of the Complaint, and does not constitute an admission by Respondent that the law has been violated as alleged in such Complaint, or that the facts as alleged in such Complaint, other than jurisdictional facts related to Count III of the Complaint and the facts admitted in Respondent's Answer to the Complaint, are true, and waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission's Rules; and

The Commission having thereafter withdrawn this matter, as to the allegations contained in Count III of the Complaint, from adjudication in accordance with Section 3.25(c) of the Commission's Rules, 16 C.F.R. § 3.25(c), and the Commission having considered the matter

- M. “Qualified clinically-integrated joint arrangement” means an arrangement to provide physician services in which:
1. All physicians who participate in the arrangement participate in active and ongoing programs of the arrangement to evaluate and modify the practice patterns of, and create a high degree of interdependence and cooperation among, the physicians who participate in the arrangement, in order to control costs and ensure the quality of services provided through the arrangement; and
 2. Any agreement concerning price or other terms or conditions of dealing entered into by or within the arrangement is reasonably necessary to obtain significant efficiencies through the arrangement.
- N. “Qualified risk-sharing joint arrangement” means an arrangement to provide physician services in which:
1. All physicians who participate in the arrangement share substantial financial risk through their participation in the arrangement and thereby create incentives for the physicians who participate jointly to control costs and improve quality by managing the provision of physician services, such as risk-sharing involving the:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED

PROVIDED FURTHER:

1. that with respect to any Paragraph IV Notification, Respondent shall include the following information:
 - a. a description of the Arrangement and its purpose, function, and geographic area of operation;
 - b. a description of the nature and extent of the integration and the expected efficiencies from the Arrangement;
 - c. an explanation of how any agreement on prices, or on contract terms related to price, furthers the integration and achievement of the efficiencies resulting from the Arrangement;
 - d. a description of any procedures proposed to be implemented to limit possible anticompetitive effects resulting from the Arrangement or its activities; and
 - e. all studies, analyses, and reports that were prepared for the purpose of evaluating or analyzing competition for physician services in any relevant market; and
2. if, within sixty (60) days from the Commission's receipt of the Paragraph IV Notification, a representative of the Commission makes a written request for additional information to Respondent, then Respondent shall not engage in any conduct described in Paragraph IV.A or Paragraph IV.B of this Order prior to the expiration of sixty (60) days after substantially complying with such request for additional information, or such shorter waiting period as may be granted in writing by the Bureau of Competition. The expiration of any waiting period described herein without a request for additional information or without the initiation of an enforcement proceeding shall not be construed as a determination by the Commission, or its staff, that a violation of the law, or of this Order, may not have occurred. Further, receipt by the Commission from Respondent of any Paragraph IV Notification, pursuant to Paragraph IV of this Order, is not to be construed as a determination by the Commission that any such Arrangement does or does not violate this Order or any law enforced by the Commission.

V.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that ENH Medical Group shall:

- A. Within thirty (30) days after the date this Order becomes final, send by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, a copy of this Order and the Complaint:

Dear _____:

Enclosed is a copy of a complaint and a consent order (“Order”) issued by the Federal Trade Commission against Evanston Northwestern Healthcare Corporation and ENH Medical Group, Inc. (“ENH Medical Group”).

Pursuant to Paragraph V.B of the Order, ENH Medical Group must allow each payor with whom it has a contract to terminate, upon its written request without any penalty or charge, any contracts with ENH Medical Group for the provision of physician services by physicians who are not employees of ENH Medical Group (“affiliated physicians”) that were in effect prior to its receipt of a letter notifying it of its right to terminate.

Paragraph V.B of the Order also provides that, if a payor does not terminate a contract, the contract will terminate at the earlier of [appropriate date to be filled in by ENH Medical Group] or its earliest termination or renewal date (including any automatic renewal date). If the termination or renewal date occurs prior to [appropriate date to be filled in by ENH Medical Group], payor may request ENH Medical Group to extend that date to a date no later than [appropriate date to be filled in by ENH Medical Group]. If the payor chooses to extend the term of the contract, it may later terminate the contract at any time. To afford you the opportunity to enter into new contracts, ENH Medical Group will send you written notice of the date each ENH Medical Group contract in which you participate is to be terminated .

Sincerely,
