substantial impact on their businesses. The proposed brief would assist the Commission in determining the appropriate remedy and inform the Commission about how the remedy that the rules and procedures of SSOs, including JEDEC, are followed and respected, particularly those that relate to the incorporation of proprietary technology into important standards like the JEDEC SDRAM standards. Moreover, Broadcom and Freescale are direct victims of the "hold up" orchestrated by Rambus and found by the Commission to violate Section 5 of the FTC Act. Broadcom and Freescale, along with dozens of other companies, are among the OEMs and manufacturers of complementary components that the Commission expressly recognized to be "locked in" to the markets now monopolized
