

The twenty year termination period in this order follows the Commission's stated policy with respect to the duration of administrative orders, and the Commission finds no basis for varying that policy in this matter. Accordingly, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. Thank you again for your comments. The Commission is aided in its analysis by