Your profile includes your name, photo, people you follow, and people who follow you.

Show the lists of people I'm following and who follows me

The right side of the page shows a user profile header with a profile picture and a list of items. The list items are partially obscured by black redaction boxes. The header includes a name and a search icon. The list items appear to be a series of entries, each with a small icon and some text, but the details are hidden by the redactions.
