6. Respondent waives:
  - a. Any further procedural steps, including but not limited to those described in Sections 1.92-1.97 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. §§ 1.92-1.97, and the Energy Policy and Conservation Act, 42 U.S.C. § 6303(d);
  - b. The requirement that the Commission's decision contain a statement of findings of fact and conclusions of law;
  - c. All rights to seek judicial review or otherwise to challenge or contest the validity of the order entered pursuant to this agreement; and
  - d. Any claim under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
7. This agreement shall not become part of the public record of the proceeding unless and until it is accepted by the Commission. If this agreement is accepted by the Commission, the Commission will issue and serve its decision in disposition of the proceeding.
8. This agreement contemplates that, if it is accepted by the Commission, and if such

B. Respondent represents and acknowledges that the Commission's agreement to this order is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Respondent's financial condition as represented in: (1) Respondent's sworn financial statements, submitted to the Commission on June 29, 2011; and (2) Respondent's and Manuel Santos' depositions taken under oath on July 27, 2011 (collectively "Financial Statements"). Respondent further represents that it has filed a request with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to provide a copy of its 2009 tax return to the Commission and has submitted proof of such request to the Commission.

C. If the Commission finds that Respondent failed to disclose any material asset or materially misstated the value of any asset in its Financial Statements, made any other material misstatement or omission in its Financial Statements, or failed to submit timely a request to the IRS to provide the Commission with a copy of its 2009 tax return, the Commission may reopen this matter for the purpose of calculating an appropriate civil penalty from Respondent; provided, however, proceedings instituted under this Paragraph are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies available by law. Solely for the purposes of reopening or enforcing this Paragraph, Respondent waives any right to contest any of the allegations set forth in the complaint filed in this matter.
