II. THE PROPOSED ACQUISITION

8. Pursuant to a Contribution and Redemption Assignment dated Coober 15, 2011, AmeriGas proposed to aquire all of the noncorporte assets of Heinage Operating L.P., Heritage GP, LLC, Titan Energy Partners, LP., and Titan Energy GP, LL.C.

9. In November 2011, Commission staff advised Repondents of potential competitive issues and concerns in connection with AmeriGas's proposed acquisition of certain propaneassets of Hitage Operating L.P., Heritage GP, LLC, Titan Energy Partners, LP., and Titan Energy GP, LL.C., used in connection with the prepartion, filling, distributing, maketing and sale of propane exchange cylinders. These assets included, but were not limited to production facilities, depots, district offices reployees, glinders, delivery trucks, cages used by retail locations to dsplay and dispense exchange cylinders, customer contracts, trademarks, computer and information technology systems, and contracts providing for access to the supply of bulk propaneneces aryto fill propane echange cylinders (hereinatter referred to as "exchange cylinder assts").

10. After being advised by Commission staff of potential competitive concerns regarding the exchange cylinder assets, Respondents informed Commission staff of their willingness to entreinto an amedment to the Contribution and Redemption Aggment, referred to in Paragaph 8 bove, to exclude the exchange yinder assets from the propose acquisition.

11. Amendment 2 to the Control of th

III . THE RELEVANT MARKETS

12. For purposes of this Complaint, the relevant line of commerce in which to analyze the effects of this acquisition is preparing filling, distributing, maketing and sale of propare exchange cylinders for large multi-state retail chains.

13. For purposes of this Complaint, the relevant geographic areas in which to analyze the effects of the acquisition are the United States and smaller regional areas.

IV. THE STRUCTURE OF THE MARKET

14. Consumers and commercial users of propane exchange cylinders typically utilize these cylinders for barbeque grills, patio heaters, and uses requiring the availability of propane in relatively small, portable tanks. Propane exchange cylinders offer consumers a way to obtain prefilled tanks. Manyconsumers perfer the convenience of obta

18. ETP, through its Heritage Propane Express division, is the third langt supplier of propane exchange cylinders in some or all of the elevant geographicareas, providing propane exchange cylinders in 37 states. Hearge Propane Express is a mavie k in the maket for the distribution and sale of propa exchange cylinders by competing aggressively with Blue Rhino and ACE in terms of propa end other terms and conditions. Isome or all of the elevant geographicareas, Heitage Propane Express is the only iable alternative to Bue Rhino and ACE for a significant set of large multi-state retail chains.

19. If consummated, AneriGas's initial proposed aquisition of ETP's propae assets, including the Heitage Propane Express division, pursuant to the origil Contribution and Redenption Agreement, would redue the number of cylinder exchang comparies that ca service multi-state chain retailers in all or a substantial part of the relevant geographic markets from three to two. I would also eliminate Hitage Propane Express, dow-priced competitor that has brought greater competition to the propane exchange cylinder marketplace for multistate chain retailers. The current proposed acquisition pursuant to the terms set forth in Amendment 2 does not such in an increase in market concentration because it does not involve AmeriGas acquiring the Heritage Propane Express assets from ETP.

V. ENTRY CONDITIONS

20. Entry into the relevant market would not be timely, likely, or sufficient in magnitude, character, and sope to deteor counteract the anticompetitive feets of the acquisition. Entryinto cylinder exchange involves two issues: the engeal cost of entry and the cost of entring at a sufficiently large scale to service large regional or national mailers. Timely 20 elef pca

- c. by increasing the likelihood that the meegl entity will exercise markepower unilaterally in the market for the provision of exchange cylinders to multi-state retail chains that sell these producto consumers; and
- d. by increasing the likelihood that consumers will be fored to pay higher prices for propaneexchange cylinders due to the observe in ompetition or the exercise of market power.

VII. VIOLATIONS CHARGED

22. AmeriGas's agreement to acquire Heritage Propane Express, as originally proposed in the Contribution and Redemption Act, and the source of the FTC Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 45, and if consummated, constitutes a violation of Section 7 of the Clapyn Act, as an ended, 15 U.S.C. § 18, and Sector 5 of the FTC Act, as an ended, 15 U.S.C. § 18, and Sector 5 of the FTC Act, as an ended, 15 U.S.C. § 45.

WHE REFORE, THE PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Federal TradeCommission on this tenth day of January, 2012, issues its Complaint against said Respondents.

By the Commission.
