

number, amount, due dates or periods of scheduled payments, and the total of such payments under the lease; and a statement of whether or not the lessee has the option to purchase the leased property and at what price and time (the method of determining the price may be substituted for disclosure of the price), in violation of the CLA and Section 213.5(c) of Regulation M.

The proposed order prohibits respondents Jerry's Ford, Jerry's Chevy and Cohen, in any advertisement to promote any extension of consumer credit, from misrepresenting in any manner, directly or by implication, the terms of financing the purchase of a vehicle, including but not limited to whether there may be a balloon payment and the amount of any balloon payment.

The proposed order also prohibits respondents Jerry's Ford, Jerry's Chevy and Cohen, in any advertisement to promote any extension of consumer credit, from stating a rate of finance charge without stating the rate as an "annual percentage rate," using that term or the abbreviation "APR," and from failing to calculate the rate in accordance with Regulation Z.

The proposed order also requires respondents Jerry's Ford, Jerry's Chevy and Cohen, in any advertisement to promote any extension of consumer credit, whenever the number or amount of payments required to repay the debt are stated, to accurately, clear and conspicuously, state all of the terms required by Regulation Z, as follows: the amount or percentage of the downpayment; the terms of repayment, including the amount of any balloon payment, and the annual percentage rate.

The proposed order also requires respondents Jerry's Ford, Jerry's Chevy and Cohen, in any advertisement to promote any extension of consumer credit, whenever the number or amount of payments required to repay the debt are stated, to accurately, clearly and conspicuously, state all of the terms required by Regulation Z, as follows: The amount or percentage of the downpayment, the terms of repayment, and the annual percentage rate. The proposed order also requires respondents Jerry's Ford, Jerry's Chevy and Cohen to state only those terms that actually are or will be arranged or offered by the creditor, in any credit advertisement.

The proposed order also requires respondents Jerry's Ford, Jerry's Chevy and Cohen, in any advertisement to aid, promote or assist any consumer lease, whenever the amount of any payment, the number of required payments, or that any or no downpayment or other payment is required at consummation of the lease is stated, to state, clearly and conspicuously, all of the terms required by Regulation M, as applicable and as follows: That the transaction advertised is a lease; the total amount of any payment such as a security deposit or capitalized cost reduction required at the consummation of the lease, or that no such payments are required; the number, amounts, due dates or periods of scheduled payments, and the total of such payments under the lease; a statement of whether or not the lessee has the option to purchase the leased property and at what price and time (the method of determining the price may be substituted for disclosure of the price), and a statement of the amount or method of determining the amount of any liabilities the lease imposes upon the lessee at the end of the term and a statement that the lessee shall be liable for the difference, if any, between the estimated value of the leased property and its realized value at the end of the lease term if the lessee has such liability. The proposed order also requires respondents in any lease advertisement to state that a specific lease of any property at specific amounts or terms is available only if the lessor usually and customarily leases or will lease such property at those amounts or terms.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order. It is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

[Program Announcement No. ACYF-PA-CC-9501]

Administration on Children, Youth and Families Child Care Bureau; Child Care Research Partnerships

AGENCY: Administration on Children, Youth and Families (ACYF), Administration for Children and Families (ACF).

ACTION: Announcement of the availability of funds and request for applications to conduct Child Care Research Partnerships.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this solicitation is to announce a competition for approximately three cooperative agreements to conduct Child Care Research Partnerships. The Child Care Research Partnerships are intended to study critical child care issues concerning: (1) The child care needs, utilization patterns and outcomes for low-income families, particularly those moving from welfare to work and those who are currently employed but are at risk of needing welfare services; (2) child care opportunities and constraints which affect the lives of low-income families and children; and (3) systemic issues which affect the delivery of subsidized child care services to welfare clients and low-income working families. Each of the individual projects will participate as a member of an ACYF Research Consortium to be cooperatively formed by the Child Care Research Partnership projects and the ACYF Child Care Bureau. The purpose of this consortium will be to coordinate and link the individual studies in order to maximize their contributions to basic knowledge, policy and practice.
