Said bond shall be conditioned upon compliance by respondent Santamaria with the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and with the provisions of this Order. The bond shall be deemed continuous and remain in full force and effect as long as respondent Santamaria continues to advertise, promote, offer for sale, sell, or distribute any weight-loss product or smoking deterrent or cessation product, directly or indirectly, to the general public, and for at least five (5) years after he has ceased any such activity. The bond shall cite this Order as the subject matter of the bond and provide surety against respondent Santamaria's failure to pay consumer redress or disgorgement as set forth herein. Such performance bond shall be an insurance agreement providing surety issued by a surety company that is admitted to do business in a state in which respondent Santamaria is doing business and that holds a Federal Certificate of Authority as Acceptable Surety on Federal Bond and Reinsuring.

Respondent Santamaria shall provide a copy of such performance bond to the associate director of the Federal Trade Commission's Division of Enforcement, 6th Street & Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580, prior to the commencement of any business for which such bond is required.

Provided, however, in lieu of a performance bond, respondent Santamaria may establish and fund, pursuant to the terms set forth herein, an escrow account in the principal sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) in cash, or such other assets of equivalent value, which the Commission, or its representative, in its sole discretion may approve. Respondent Santamaria shall maintain such amount in that account for so long as he continues to advertise, promote, offer for sale, sell, or distribute any weight-loss product or smoking deterrent or cessation product, directly or indirectly, to the general public, and for at least five (5) years after he has ceased any such activity. Respondent Santamaria shall pay all costs associated with the creation, funding, operation, and administration of the escrow account. The Commission, or its representative, shall, in its sole discretion, select the escrow agent. The escrow agreement shall be in substantially the form attached to this Order as Exhibit A.

The performance bond or escrow agreement shall provide that the surety company or escrow agent, within thirty days following receipt of notice that a final judgment or an order of the Commission against respondent Santamaria for consumer redress or disgorgement in an action brought under the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act has been entered, or, in the case of an order of the Commission, has become final, finding that he has violated the terms of this Order or the Federal Trade Commission Act, and determining the amount of consumer redress or disgorgement to be paid, shall pay to the Commission so much of the performance bond or funds of the escrow account as does not exceed the amount of consumer redress or disgorgement ordered, and which remains unsatisfied at the time notice is provided to the surety company or escrow agent, provided that, if respondent Santamaria has agreed to the entry of a court order or an order of the Commission, a specific finding that Santamaria violated the terms of this Order or the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act shall not be necessary. A copy of the notice provided for herein shall be mailed to respondent Santamaria at his last known address.

Respondent Santamaria may not disclose the existence of the performance bond or escrow account to any consumer, or other purchaser or prospective purchaser, to whom a covered product is advertised, promoted, offered for sale, sold, or distributed, without also disclosing at the same time and in a like manner that the performance bond or escrow account is required by order of the Federal Trade Commission in settlement of charges that respondent Santamaria engaged in false and misleading representations.

XVII

It is further ordered that respondents, Taleigh Corporation and Choice Diet Products, Inc., shall:

A. Within thirty (30) days after service of this Order, provide a copy of this Order to each of respondents' current principals, officers, directors, and managers, and to all personnel, agents, and representatives having sales, advertising, or policy responsibility with respect to the subject matter of this Order; and

For a period of five (5) years from the date of issuance of this Order, provide a copy of this Order to each respondents' future principals, officers, directors, and managers, and to all personnel, agents, and representatives having sales, advertising, or policy responsibility with respect to the subject matter of this Order who are associated with respondents or any subsidiary, successor, or assign, within three (3) days after the person assumes his or her responsibilities.

XVIII

It is further ordered that for five (5) years after the last date of dissemination of any representation covered by this Order, respondents, or their successors and assigns, shall maintain and upon request make available to the Federal Trade Commission or its staff for inspection and copying:

A. All materials that are relied upon in disseminating such representation; and

B. All tests, reports, studies, surveys, demonstrations or other evidence in their possession or control that contradict, qualify, or call into question such representation, or the basis relied upon for such representation, including complaints from consumers.

XIX

It is further ordered that respondents, Taleigh Corporation and Choice Diet Products, Inc., shall notify the Federal Trade Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in their corporate structures, including but not limited to dissolution, assignment, or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or affiliates, the planned filing for a bankruptcy petition, or any other corporate change that may affect compliance obligations arising out of this Order.

XX

It is further ordered that respondent, William J. Santamaria, shall, for a period of seven (7) years from the date of issuance of this Order, notify the Commission within thirty (30) days of the discontinuance of his present business or employment and of his affiliation with any new business or employment. Each notice of affiliation shall include respondent's new business address and telephone number, current home address, and a statement describing the nature of the business of employment and his duties and responsibilities.

XXI

It is further ordered that respondents, Taleigh Corporation and Choice Diet Products, Inc., corporations, their successors and assigns, and their officers; and William J. Santamaria, individually and as an officer and director of the corporate respondents; shall, within sixty (60) days after service of this Order, and at such other times as the Federal Trade Commission may require, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this Order.

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement, subject to final approval, to a proposed consent order from proposed respondents Taleigh Corporation, Choice Diet Products, Inc., and William J. Santamaria.

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement and take other appropriate action or make final the agreement's proposed order.

This matter concerns advertising and trade practices related to the sale of several weight-loss pills and a smoking cessation product. The Commission's Complaint alleges that proposed respondents Taleigh Corporation, Choice Diet Products, Inc., and William J. Santamaria made a number of false claims regarding the speed and ease with which consumers can burn fat and lose substantial amounts of weight with proposed respondents' weight-loss pills—MegaLoss, FormulaTrim, and MiracleTrim. The Complaint also alleges that proposed respondents falsely promoted these products as new or unique, as causing weight loss without the need for users to diet or exercise, and as providing the same weight-loss benefits as exercise. With respect to MiracleTrim, the Complaint also alleges that respondents falsely represented that consumers who ordered MiracleTrim would receive a personal weight-loss consultation from a qualified professional.

With respect to MegaLoss, the Complaint also alleges that proposed respondents represented that the product would not cause nervous jitters or insomnia, or have any dangerous side effects, and that, prior to the sale of MegaLoss, the active ingredient in the product was not available without a prescription. The Complaint further alleges that respondents represented that FormulaTrim and MegaLoss would "burn fat" and that MegaLoss and MiracleTrim would significantly shrink millions of fat cells.

The Complaint also alleges that proposed respondents falsely and misleadingly represented that they possessed and relied upon a reasonable basis when they made the claims set forth above. The Complaint further alleges that proposed respondents falsely represented that the MegaLoss and FormulaTrim pills are scientifically proven to cause significant weight loss. The Complaint also charges that proposed respondents failed to disclose adequately that certain consumer endorsers appearing in their advertising had a material connection to proposed respondents, in that the consumers had been compensated or offered significant compensation for their endorsement.

The Complaint further alleges that proposed respondents have engaged in several unfair and deceptive trade practices, including: (1) Debiting consumers' bank accounts or billing consumers' credit card accounts without their authorization; (2) offering a money-back guarantee in their ads and then denying refunds or failing to make timely refunds to consumers who have returned the product within the required time period; (3) failing to deliver products at all or failing to deliver products within a reasonable period of time; and (4) violating the Truth in Lending Act by not processing credit charges in a timely fashion.

Regarding Nicotain, a purported smoking cessation product, the Complaint charges proposed respondents with representing falsely and without a reasonable basis that Nicotain enables smokers to stop smoking quickly and easily, and that it works through the same mechanism as a prescription smoking deterrent patch.

With respect to the advertising for both the weight loss pills and Nicotain, the Complaint alleges that proposed respondents falsely represented that consumer testimonials appearing in the ads reflect the typical or ordinary experience of members of the public who have used the products.

The proposed consent order contains provisions designed to remedy the violations charged and to prevent the proposed respondent from engaging in similar acts in the future.

Part I of the proposed order prohibits proposed respondents from representing that MegaLoss, FormulaTrim, and MiracleTrim, or any other weight-loss product containing phenylpropanolamine as the active ingredient: (1) Causes or assists in causing rapid weight loss; (2) causes or assists in causing substantial weight loss without the need to exercise or reduce caloric intake; (3) is new or unique or contains a new or unique ingredient; (4) causes the burning of more body fat than certain strenuous exercise; or (5) contains an active ingredient that, prior to the sale of such product, was available only through doctors.

Part II requires the proposed respondents to disclose that diet or exercise are required to lose weight in connection with any representation about the effect of a weight-loss product on weight or body size, unless they have competent and reliable scientific evidence to the contrary. Part III prohibits proposed respondents from making the types of weight-loss, fat burning and smoking cessation claims alleged in the complaint to be false and unsubstantiated, unless the claims are true and substantiated by competent and reliable scientific evidence. Part IV prohibits proposed respondents from representing that Nicotain or any substantially similar product (a) will enable smokers to stop smoking easily, or (b) works through a mechanism substantially similar to a prescription smoking deterrent patch. Part V prohibits any misrepresentation concerning the nature or mechanism of operation of any smoking cessation product.

Part VI prohibits proposed respondents from misrepresenting that: (1) Any product or program is new or unique, or contains a new or unique ingredient; (2) consumers who order any product or program will receive a personal consultation from a physician or medically trained weight-loss counselor; or (3) the results claimed in consumer testimonials constitute the typical or ordinary experience of members of the public who use the advertised product or program.

Part VII of the proposed order requires proposed respondents to disclose, clearly and prominently, a material connection, where one exists, between any endorser and the proposed respondents.

Part VIII prohibits proposed respondents from misrepresenting the contents, validity, results, conclusions, or interpretations of any test or study. Part IX requires that proposed respondents have competent and reliable scientific evidence to substantiate the following categories of claims for any product or program: (1) Any representations regarding dangerous side effects, nervous jitters, insomnia, or any other adverse health effects; (2) any representations that the product or program burns, reduces, or diminishes body fat; and (3) any representations that the product or program will significantly shrink fat cells. Part X requires proposed respondents to possess scientific substantiation before making representations regarding the performance, benefits, efficacy, or safety of any weight-loss product, smoking deterrent or cessation product, food, food or dietary supplement, drug, or device.

Parts XI and XII contain safe harbors for claims that are permitted on the labeling of foods and drugs under the applicable FDA regulations.

Part XIII bans proposed respondents' practice of charging a consumer's credit card account of debiting a consumer's checking account in excess of the amount affirmatively authorized by the consumer. Under Part XIV, proposed respondents are prohibited from misrepresenting the terms of a money-back guarantee and from failing to provide a refund when a consumer has complied with the conditions stated in the advertisement for obtaining a refund. Part XV prohibits proposed respondents from failing to comply with the requirements of the Commission's Mail or Telephone Order Merchandise Rule, as amended, effective March 1, 1994.

Part XVI requires that as a condition of advertising, promoting, offering for sale, selling, or distributing any weight-loss product or smoking deterrent or cessation product, proposed respondent Santamaria either obtain a performance bond or establish an escrow account in the amount of $300,000.

Part XVII requires proposed respondents to maintain, for five (5) years, all materials that support, contradict, qualify, or call into question any representations they make which are covered by the proposed order. Part XVIII requires the proposed corporate respondents to distribute a copy of the order to current and future principals, officers, directors, and managers, as well as to any employees having sales, advertising, or policy responsibility with respect to the subject matter of the order. Under Part XIX of the proposed order, the proposed corporate respondents must notify the Federal Trade Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to certain proposed changes in their structures. Part XX requires that proposed respondent Santamaria, for a period of seven (7) years, notify the Commission of any change in his business or employment. Part XXI obliges proposed respondents to file compliance reports with the Commission.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order, and it is not to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

Secretary.
