... responsibility of the acquisition of intellectual property in which a state retain the right to the license of intellectual property.

This letter is to confirm our telephone discussion of February 2, 2000. If any of the information set out below is not correct please let me know as soon as possible.

Company K is the exclusive licensee of intellectual property developed by Y state university. Y state retains the right to use the intellectual property for its own purposes. However, in the past it has generally failed to exercise such rights. Company Y intends to possible.

THE IS NO NEED FOR Y TO EXERCISE THE RIGHTS IT HAS

Very truly yours,
