Re: Hart-Scott-Rodino

Dear Mr. Kaplan:

This will confirm our telephone discussion of yesterday, Thursday, July 7, 1988, and your advice to me that no filing would be required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the "Act") or the regulations thereunder based on the following facts.

Companies A, B and C, all unrelated foreign companies, will acquire in the aggregate 50% of the stock of four U.S. companies (the "Subsidiaries"). The Subsidiaries are 100% owned by D, a U.S. company. The aggregate purchase price for the 50% of the of the stock of the Subsidiaries by A, B and C would not be a reportable transaction.

of a new company by the same companies mentioned above. A, B and C will contribute their collective 50% of the stock of the

In exchange for their respective contributions of securities in the Subsidiaries to each of A, B, C and D
