Dear Mr. Sharpe:

Our firm represents a party involved in the transaction would not be altered by further clarification of a particular letter are selected pursuant to the express contractual powers of Partner A as contained in the Partnership Agreement the conclusions reached in the referenced letter because of the Commission's position that partnership interests do not entitle the owner to vote for a corporate "director" or "an individual exercising similar functions." Please affirm that the FTC's previous confirmation of the conclusions reached in the referenced letter would not be changed by the aforementioned clarifying facts.

Sincerely,
