FEDERAL EXPRESS

Ms. Nancy M. Ovuka

Compliance Specialist
Federal Trade Commission
Pre-Merger Notification Office confidentiality provision of Room 301
Sixth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue Mswation act
Washington, D. C. 20580

Re:

from
Hart-Scott-Rodino Anti-Trust Improvements Act of 1976
Pre-Merger Notification and Waiting Period Requirements

(c)(i)

Dear Ms. Ovuka:

On December 14, 1990, we forwarded to you a letter requesting your concurrence with our oninion that the sale by , of the golf course clubbouse and related facilities, and memberships, to corporation would be exempt from the Pre-Merger Notification.

December 14, 1990, were exempt from the Pre-Merger Notifications Requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Anti-Trust Improvements Act of 1976, by virtue of 15 U.S.C. §18a(c)(1) and 16 CFR 802.1(b).

Subsequent to the date of our telephone conversation, advised that it was terminating the purchase agreement because it was not able to obtain the necessary financing to complete the acquisition. Since the date of termination of the transaction by has been actively seeking a new purchaser for the property. On April 3, 1991. Preceived a letter of intent from corporation , a copy of which is enclosed herewith.

The purpose of this letter is to request that the Pre-Merger Notification Office of the Federal Trade Commission concur in our determination that the sale by to the office of the golf course, clubhouse and related facilities and 50 Ms. Nancy M. Ovuka Page 2 April 10, 1991

the Pre-Merger Notification Requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino

1. Description of the Project. The project is an approximately 874 acre master-planned residential golf government of the project. The Master which area of

("Golf Course"), and an approximately 47,000 square foot golf clubhouse ("Clubhouse") (the Golf Course and the Clubhouse shall

The primary feature of the project is the Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course and the 47,000 square foot Clubhouse. As the master developer of will construct and develop the Golf Course, the Clubhouse and all other common facilities located within the project, and will also construct approximately homesites within The Golf Course was substantially completed and open for play on The Clubhouse is currently under construction and the projected date for completion is As of the date of this letter, homesites have been sold and approximately are currently held by and will be sold by in the future.

2. Membership Program. The original intention of

. Under the . upon the sale of a specified number of memberships, would transfer the Golf Course and the Clubbouse to the nonprofit corporation in connection with the sale of memberships.

During the latter part of 1989, elected to convert the to a nonequity membership program. Pursuant to the new Nonequity Membership Program, is offering both golf and social memberships in Under the Nonequity Membership Program, the members do not have any ownership interest in or the

Rather, they are merely purchasing a lifetime membership which entitles each member and his family the right to utilize and enjoy all of the Following the conversion by from the Equity Membership Program to the Nonequity memberships in pursuant to the Nonequity Membership Program. Under the terms of the Nonequity Membership Program, approximately 500 golf memberships will be offered and also has the right to create other membership ree is due and payable on the date in which the Clubhouse is completed and available for use by the members. The initial deposit payable by accepted applicants is refundable under certain circumstances including, the failure of to complete the construction and development of the on or before or upon the death, business relocation, financial reversal, marital dissolution or physical illness or disability of an accepted applicant prior to the date of completion of the In addition to the membership fee, members are required to pay monthly dues in the sum of per month and a monthly food and beverage minimum of per month. However, prior to the date upon which the Clubhouse is completed and available for use by the members, no monthly food and beverage payments are required and those persons desiring to utilize the Golf Course may pay a reduced amount of monthly dues equal to per month. As of the date the Golf Course opened), there were members of the date the members of the date the Golf Course opened.

per month in order to utilize the Golf Course.

utilize the Golf Course and the Clubhouse as the primary marketing focus for the project and to ultimately sell the Golf Course and the Clubhouse.

the sale of the Club Facilities. During the first eight months of actively marketed the and received numerous proposals and letters of intent from prospective purchasers. On a contract (approximately one and one-half months after the Golf tourse was substantially completed and Nonequity Membership Program. As described above, that transaction was not consummated by reason of the failure of to

Ms. Nancy M. Ovuka Page 4 April 10, 1991

In , and began discussions and negotiations regarding the proposed purchase by of the proposed purchase by the proposed p the Nonequity Membership Program (the Club Facilities and the Corporate Memberships in the Nonequity Membership Program shall collectively be referred to herein as the "Assets"). A summary of the terms and conditions of the transaction are described below.

proposes to purchase the Assets for an aggregate purchase price of approximately to the purchase price will be payable by remaining unsold memberships authorized pursuant to the Nonequity Membership Program. The scheduled Closing Date for this transaction is

Following the acquisition of the Assets by from will manage the on behalf of for a period of three years. Will also be responsible for marketing and selling all of the remaining unsold memberships pursuant to the Nonequity Membership Program. Will not have any proprietary, voting or other interest in the and will have complete control with regard to the operation, management and control of the is a corporation. in good standing under the laws of the State of The majority shareholder of a corporation. and its affiliates own two other golf course properties in the United States:

Ms. Nancy M. Ovuka Page 5 April 10, 1991

standing. was originally formed in and the partners in are an individual.

a corporation, and limited partnership. is the sole shareholder of The shareholder of The shareholder of The shareholder of The limited partners of are

We have concluded that the

(b) Certain Acquisition of Assets. No acquisition of the goods or realty of an entity (except for entities described in Paragraph (a) of this Section) shall be made that entity or an operating division thereof.

As described above, the purchase of the Assets by from does not constitute the purchase by of all or substantially all the assets of Following the consummation of the transferior domained above.

lots today is equal to the sum of approximately-

Exemption Claimed.

Membership Program (other than the Corporate Memberships which are being purchased by Based on the foregoing, we have

Ms. Nancy M. Ovuka Page 6 April 10, 1991

医橡胶 经股票 医多性乳炎 电对应重换 人名法巴尔

substantially all of the assets of

Since has been engaged in negotiations with various prospective purchasers of the Assets. Approximately one and one-half months after the Golf Course was substantially completed and open for use by the Members, of the transaction, has been actively involved in negotiations regarding the sale of the Assets. Although has received some monthly dues and other revenues derived from the limited operation of the Golf Course during this time period, we do not believe that the relatively insignificant amount of revenues derived by mitigates consistent and ongoing intention to market and sell the Assets as soon as reasonably possible. Based on the foregoing, we have concluded that the sale of the Assets by to the sale within the ordinary course of business of the Assets as described in 16 CFR 802.1(b), and is therefore exempt from the Pre-Merger Notification Requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Anti-Trust Improvements Act, by virtue of 15 U.S.C. §18(c)(1).

We would appreciate receiving a confirming letter from the Pre-Merger Notification Office of the Federal Trade Commission concurring in our determinations as expressed herein. In this regard, we are enclosing five copies of this letter to facilitate your review process.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this very important matter. Should you require any further information or

Very truly yours,

