1

VIA HAND DELIVERY

John M. Sipple, Esq.
Assistant Director
Bureau of Competition
Federal Trade Commission
Room 338
Sixth Street & Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20580

Re: Hart-Scott-Rodino Reportability of Start-Up Limited Liability Company

Dear Mr. Sipple:

We represent one of the founding parties of a Delaware limited liability company known as LLC (the "LLC"), the certificate of formation for which was filed on June 3, 1996. The LLC will have as its purpose the construction and operation of a new, start-up foundry that will manufacture integrated circuit wafers and provide certain manufacturing services to its customers in connection therewith.

The LLC is not to be organized or managed as a corporation. It will instead be organized and managed as to result in it being treated as a partnership for federal income mutual agreement of the parties or upon certain other events,

Republic of (together, "Manufacturer"), (2) three U.S.

&lt;sup>1</sup> The filing of the certificate of formation with the Delaware Secretary of State is a ministerial act. The LLC will not have any members until the Limited Liability Company Agreement of the LLC is executed, sometime in the week of June 10.

Jonn M. Sippie, Esq. June 5, 1996

Page 2

corporate customers of Manufacturer, each of which is a reporting manage the LLC, acting through a "Board of Directors." The Board will consist of seven Directors. The Manufacturer shall appoint four Directors, only one of whom may vote. Each of the three corporate customers will appoint one voting director. The Third Party Investors will have one observer on the Board of Directors serve at the pleasure of his or her appointing Member, and only the appointing Member may remove its appointed Director. A Director may region by written notice to his or her appointed.

which appointed the Director whose position has become vacant. Each voting Director will hold the same number of votes as the percentage interest in the LLC held by the Member that appoints that voting Director. Certain extraordinary actions also require supermajority votes of the Members who vote on the basis of each Member's Percentage Interest in the LLC.

The parties believe that, on the basis of these facts,

I have requised that have on the fair

A dissell requision that hased or the facts presented the function of the LLC is not reportable as the function of a experient JV. Alway is brasish and the fact that the LLC is members are comparations and
the fact that the LLC is members are comparations and the members are appointing employees to act on their
the members are appointing employees to act on their what for the Search. I entered persons were being without on the Search. I could be patentially or mitable.