Five Questions About Section 5

William E. Kovacic
U.S. Federal Trade Commission
Washington, D.C.
October 17, 2008

- Areeda's Hypothesis from the 1960s and 1970s
- The Supreme Court and the Modern Treatment of Private Rights

- Test: Name Ten Distinctive FTC
   Contributions to Competition Policy
   Jurisprudence Through Section 5
  - Consents (e.g., Xerox) or Litigated Cases
  - How many of your top ten are regarded today as distinctive and useful?
- Why Will Outcomes Improve in the Future?

- Last Litigated FTC Section 5 Victories in Competition Cases: 1960s
- Section 5 in Theory
- Section 5 in Practice
  - , OAG
  - Ethyl

- From Congress or the White House
- Examples of Backlash
  - Cement Institute
  - Kellogg and Exxon

- Extensions of Sherman and Clayton Act Concepts?
- Extensions Based on Demonstrable Effects?
- Incorporation of Extrinsic Norms?
  - Which?

Concluding Thoughts

- Crucial Rationale for FTC's Creation
- Conceptual Attractions
- Problems in Implementation