

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Budget, Performance, and Financial Snapshot

Fiscal Year 2008

Mission: To prevent business practices that are anticompetitive or deceptive or unfair to consumers; to enhance informed consumer choice and public understanding of the competitive process; and to accomplish these missions without unduly burdening legitimate business activity. See our Strategic Plan for more information.

Organization: The FTC's mission is carried out by three bureaus: the Bureau of Consumer Protection, the Bureau of Economic Analysis, and the Bureau of Competition. The Bureau of Consumer Protection is the largest bureau, with approximately 1,000 employees. The Bureau of Economic Analysis has approximately 100 employees, and the Bureau of Competition has approximately 50 employees. The FTC also has a small office in Washington, D.C., and several regional offices.

Personnel: The FTC has a total of approximately 1,150 employees. The Bureau of Consumer Protection has approximately 1,000 employees, the Bureau of Economic Analysis has approximately 100 employees, and the Bureau of Competition has approximately 50 employees. The FTC also has a small office in Washington, D.C., and several regional offices.

