

Unclassified

-- UNITED STATES --

1.

4. Greyhound, the largest US carrier by number of routes, responded to this new competition by investing heavily to improve its on-board experience and offer expanded route offerings. For example, in 2014, Greyhound began advertising Wi-Fi and power outlets as standard amenities on its coaches. In 2015, it launched an integrated online platform called OnTouch, which allows riders to purchase tickets to

