(20) days after the Duke-Phillips Transaction Date or twenty (20) days after the Public Record Date, whichever comes first. Failure by Respondents to comply with those provisions in the Mitchell Agreement relating to the divestiture of the Schedule B Assets shall also constitute a violation of this Order.

C. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule C Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

D. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule D Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

E. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule E Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

F. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule F Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

G. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule G Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

H. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule H Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

I. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule I Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date. Provided that, if for any reason Respondents do not fully own and control any Schedule I Assets at any time within thirty (30) days after the Public Record Date and before the Schedule I Assets are to be divested pursuant to this Paragraph, then Respondents shall, for purposes of complying with the requirements of this Paragraph, substitute the Schedule II Assets for the Schedule I Assets.

J. Respondents shall divest absolutely, in good faith, and at no minimum price, the Schedule J Assets to a single acquirer no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date.

K. Respondents shall divest the Assets To Be Divested or the Substitute Assets To Be Divested pursuant to Paragraphs II.C. II.D., II.E., II.F., II.G., II.H., II.I., and II.J., only to acquirers that receive the prior approval of the Commission and only in a manner that receives the prior approval of the Commission.

L. At the time Respondents apply to the Commission for approval of the divestiture of the Schedule E Assets, the Schedule F Assets, the Schedule G Assets, the Schedule H Assets, and the Schedule I Assets pursuant to Paragraphs II.D., II.E., II.F., II.G., II.H., and II.I., Respondents shall certify to the Commission that all interconnecting pipe specified in such schedule has been installed. If Respondents fail to install all interconnecting pipe specified in a schedule prior to one hundred twenty (120) days after the Public Record Date, then with the approval of the Respondents of the identity of any proposed trustee, Respondents shall be deemed to have consented to the selection of the proposed trustee.

2. Subject to the prior approval of the Commission, the trustee shall have the exclusive power and authority to divest the Assets To Be Divested or the corresponding Substitute Assets To Be Divested.

3. Within ten (10) days after appointment of the trustee, Respondents shall execute a trust agreement that, subject to the prior approval of the Commission and, in the case of a court-appointed trustee, of the court, transfers to the trustee all rights and powers necessary to permit the trustee to effect each divestiture required by this Order.

4. The trustee shall have twelve (12) months from the date the Commission or court approves the trust agreement described in Paragraph III.C.3. to accomplish the divestitures, which shall be subject to the prior approval of the Commission, and in a manner, and pursuant to an agreement, that receive the prior approval of the Commission. If, however, at the end of the twelve-month period, the trustee has submitted a plan of divestiture or believes that divestiture can be achieved within a reasonable time, the divestiture period may be extended by the Commission, or, in the case of a court-appointed trustee, by the court; provided, however, the Commission may extend the period for no more than two (2) additional periods.

5. The trustee shall have full and complete access to the personnel, books, records, and facilities related to the Assets To Be Divested, to the Substitute Assets To Be Divested, or to any other relevant information, as the trustee may request. Respondents shall develop such financial or other information as such trustee may reasonably request and shall cooperate with the trustee. Respondents shall take no action to interfere with or impede the trustee's accomplishment of the divestitures. Any delays in divestiture caused by Respondents shall extend the time for divestiture under this Paragraph in an amount equal to the delay, as determined by the Commission or, for a court-appointed trustee, by the court.

6. The trustee shall use his or her best efforts to negotiate the most favorable price and terms available in each contract that is submitted to the Commission, subject to Respondents' absolute and unconditional obligation to divest expeditiously at no minimum price. The divestitures shall be made only in a manner that receives the prior approval of the Commission, and only to an acquirer or acquirers that receives the prior approval of the Commission, as set out in Paragraph II of this Order; provided, however, if the trustee receives bona fide offers for an asset to be divested from more than one acquiring entity, and if the Commission determines to approve more than one such acquiring entity, the trustee shall divest such asset to the acquiring entity or entities selected unanimously by Respondents from among those approved by the Commission; provided further, however, that Respondents shall unanimously select such entity within five (5) days of receiving notification of the Commission's approval.

7. The trustee shall serve, without bond or other security, at the cost and expense of Duke and DEFS, on such reasonable and customary terms and conditions as the Commission or a court may set. The trustee shall have the authority to employ, at the cost and expense of Duke and DEFS, such consultants, accountants, attorneys, investment bankers, business brokers, appraisers, and other representatives and assistants as are necessary to carry out the trustee's duties and responsibilities. The trustee shall account for all monies derived from the divestitures and all expenses incurred. After approval by the Commission and, in the case of a court-appointed trustee, by the court, of the account of the trustee, including fees for his or her services, all remaining monies shall be paid at the direction of Duke and DEFS, and the trustee's power shall be terminated. The trustee's compensation shall be based at least in significant part on a commission arrangement contingent on the trustee's divesting the Assets To Be Divested or the corresponding Substitute Assets To Be Divested.

8. Duke and DEFS shall indemnify the trustee and hold the trustee harmless against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses arising out of, or in connection with, the performance of the trustee's duties, including all reasonable fees of counsel and other expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense of any claim, whether or not resulting in any liability, except to the extent that such liabilities, losses, damages, claims, or expenses result from misfeasance, gross negligence, willful or wanton acts, or bad faith by the trustee.

9. Duke and DEFS shall each be jointly and severally liable for all financial obligations accruing from Paragraphs III.C.7. and III.C.8.

10. If the trustee ceases to act or fails to act diligently, a substitute trustee shall be appointed in the same manner as provided in Paragraph III.A. of this Order.

11. The Commission or, in the case of a court-appointed trustee, the court, may on its own initiative or at the request of the trustee issue such additional orders or directions as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish each divestiture required by this Order.

12. In the event that the trustee determines that he or she is unable to divest the Assets To Be Divested or the Substitute Assets To Be Divested in a manner consistent with the Commission's purpose as described in Paragraph

II.M., the trustee may divest additional ancillary assets of Respondents and effect such arrangements as are necessary to satisfy the requirements of this Order.

13. The trustee shall have no obligation or authority to operate or maintain the Assets To Be Divested or the Substitute Assets To Be Divested.

14. The trustee shall report in writing to Respondents and the Commission every sixty (60) days concerning the trustee's efforts to accomplish each divestiture required by this Order.

IV.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for a period of ten (10) years from the date this Order becomes final, Respondents shall not, without prior notification to the Commission, directly or indirectly:

- A. Acquire any of the Assets To Be Divested or the Substitute Assets To Be Divested after their divestiture pursuant to this Order;
- B. Acquire any stock, share capital, equity, or other interest in any person engaged in, or in any assets used in, gas gathering within the Relevant Geographic Areas at any time within the two years preceding such acquisition; or
- C. Enter into any agreements or other arrangements with any person, within any 18 month period, that would confer direct or indirect ownership or control of more than five (5) miles of pipeline previously used for gas gathering and suitable for use for gas gathering within the Relevant Geographic Areas.

V.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the prior notifications required by Paragraph IV of this Order shall be given on the Notification and Report Form set forth in the Appendix to Part 803 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations as amended (hereinafter referred to as "the Notification"), and shall be prepared and transmitted in accordance with the requirements of Part 803, except that no filing fee will be required for any such notification, notification shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission, notification contained in this Order.

IX.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order will terminate on May 5, 2010.

By the Commission, Commissioner Leary recused.
