ORDER

This matter came before the court for a report on status and for ruling on plaintiff Federal Trade Commission's Motion to Compel Marc Lane to Disclose Information Regarding Trudeau's Asset Protection Plan (Doc. 626), pursuant to this court's order dated April 26, 2013 (Doc. 649). For the reasons stated in open court, it is hereby ordered:

1. The Rule 30(b)(6) depositions of GIN, KTRN and WSU, by Kevin Trudeau, shall be taken on May 18 and 19, 2013, at a location of plaintiff FTC's choosing.
2. The depositions of Mr. Lane, Mr. Sant and Mr. Dow have been set and the court expects them to proceed as scheduled.
3. Plaintiff FTC's Motion to Compel Marc Lane to Disclose Information (Doc. 626) is granted. The court has reviewed the briefs filed by the parties and the sample documents submitted in camera, and finds that plaintiff FTC has established prima facie evidence sustaining the crime/fraud exception to the attorney/client and work product privilege. See United States v. Al-Shahin

Mr. Lane's deposition, currently scheduled for May 6 or 7, 2013, will remain under seal until further order.

4. This matter is set for a brief report on status of the discovery discussed at today's hearing on May 13, 2013 at 3:30 p.m.
