

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order to Aid Public Comment
In the Matter of Google Inc., File No. 122 3237

The Federal Trade Commission (Commission) has accepted, subject to final approval, an agreement containing a consent order from Google (Google).

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for 30 days for receipt of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After 30 days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received, and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement and take appropriate action or make final the agreement and proposed order.
