Re: In the Matter of Schering-Plough Corporation and Merck & Co.
Docket No. C4268

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for your comments regarding the application by Merck & Co. for Federal Trade Commission approval for the sale of Merck's Barceloneta Manufacturing Facility to Meriel. Meriel is a subsidiary of Meriel Inc. (Meriel). As we understand you, you object to the sale because you believe it will cost people their jobs.

The Order in this matter resolved competitive concerns regarding the sale of Merck's Barceloneta Manufacturing Facility to Meriel. The Order required Merck & Co. to sell its interest in the Barceloneta Manufacturing Facility to Meriel. Meriel is now the sole owner of Merck's animal health business. The Order's purpose was to preserve the remedial benefits of the Meriel animal health business to Sanofi-Aventis.

¹ Merck's application to sell the Barceloneta Manufacturing Facility is posted on the FTC website.² As explained in the application, the Barceloneta facility will continue to make the same products before and after the proposed sale. The only products manufactured at the Barceloneta facility are Heartgard and Heartgard Plus which Merck manufactures and then sells to Meriel. If Meriel buys the Barceloneta plant it will be able to take over manufacturing the products itself.

The Commission has reviewed your comments in connection with its decision concerning whether to approve Merck's application to sell the Barceloneta facility to Meriel. The Commission has evaluated whether the proposed sale will promote or diminish the remedial benefits of the Order. Taking into account your concerns, among other things, the Commission
