

expressly relied upon in agreeing to the suspension of the judgment. At minimum, Glazers failed to disclose $447,722.02 in assets he withdrew from a bank account. Because Glazers materially misstated or omitted information on his financial disclosures, the FTC respectfully moves this Court to lift the suspension and find that the full $200,000 judgment against Defendant Vito Glazers, less amounts already paid and plus interest accrued since February 25, 2014, is now due and may be executed on.

Dated: October 12, 2016
