4 DR. NEPUTE: -- believe it.
5 Hey, hey, hey, everybody. Dr. Eric Nepute
6 here again today. Hope you're having a blessed day
7 today.
8 I just had just an amazing conversation with 9 a group of doctors that I wanted to share with you a 10 little bit about that conversation. You're going to 11 be hearing a lot more about this hopefully in the 12 mainstream sooner than later, mainstream media. I
13 doubt it. But you're going to be hearing it here 14 first.
15 So I'll give everybody a second to jump on.
16 Hope you guys are having a blessed day. Let me know 17 where everybody's watching from. So who's -- who's 18 with us out there?
19 We got Terry. Good morning. Hey -- or good
20 afternoon or good day, I guess. North Carolina's 21 watching. We got some folks in Missouri watching.
22 Dan.
23 Hey, Lynn, what's happening?
24 Tammy's in Texas. Hope you're having a
25 blessed day in Texas.

1           So the third thing, very, very, very 2 important, D as in dog, D3, okay, Dr. Marik is 3 recommending between 3,000 to 4,000 IUs a day. We 4 recommend minimum of 5,000. 10,000 is what most of 5 our patients are doing. Most of our child -- our 6 children patients are doing 5,000 IUs, at least -- at 7 least twice a week, okay, at least. Every three days, 8 every four days, something like that. Very, very,
