of Complaint Counsel's case, to which Complaint Counsel bears the burden of proof. See, e.g., In the Matter of Novartis Corp., et al., 127 F.T.C. 580, 685 (1999) (Complaint Counsel must prove that claims are material to customer purchasing decisions).

To protect the integrity of the judicial process, Rule 32 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure¹ limit the admissibility of deposition testimony unless the witness is deemed unavailable under FRCP 32(a)(4). Federal Courts have thus found clear error where a party Imits transcrint testimony for substantive numbers without first establishing that -
