

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

In the Matter of

MONTGOMERY WARD CREDIT CORPORATION, a corporation, and ~~GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION, a corporation,~~ in the above captioned matter, respondent order resolving the

IT IS HEREBY AGREED by and among Montgomery Ward Credit Corporation and General

action as it may consider appropriate, or issue and serve its complaint (in such form as the circumstances may require) and decision in disposition of proceeding.

5. This agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by proposed respondents that the law has been violated as alleged in the draft complaint, or that the facts as alleged in the draft complaint, other than the jurisdictional facts, are true.

6. The Commission reserves the right to file an action for consumer redress pursuant to Section 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57b, based on the order issued in this proceeding. Proposed respondents hereby waive their right to assert a defense based on the statute of limitations (as provided by 15 U.S.C. § 57b(d)) on account of the running of time from the date that this order is signed by respondents, in any action brought by the Commission pursuant to Section 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act. This waiver shall expire one year following the proposed respondents' fulfillment of their obligations to make payments to affected consumers, as that term is used in the settlement agreement reached among proposed respondents and the Attorneys General of various states and class action lawsuits, pending on the date that proposed respondents sign this order, that resolves challenges to conduct similar to that challenged by the Commission in this proceeding. However, the Commission will not bring any action against proposed respondents pursuant to Section 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act provided that, by September 30, 1999, proposed respondents make available to consumers payments consisting of either cash refunds or reductions in credit balances, including interest and additional cash payments, of not less than $60 million, not including attorney fees, administrative costs, and any payments to the states themselves. The Commission reserves the right to pursue any legal remedy that it may have available, including an action pursuant to Section 19, in the event that the Commission believes that proposed respondents have failed to fulfill their obligations to make payments to affected consumers, as that is used in the settlement agreement reached among proposed respondents and the Attorneys General of various states and class action lawsuits, pending on the date that proposed respondents sign this order, that resolves challenges to conduct similar to that challenged by the Commission in this proceeding. The Commission reserves the right to seek to intervene in the actions referenced above for the purpose of opposing any settlement that the Commission does not deem to be in the public interest (except that the Commission will not object to the amount of any such settlement, so long as the aggregate amount of such settlements, as described above, is not less than $60 million). Proposed respondents reserve the right to oppose any attempt by the Commission to file any class action lawsuit or other legal action and the right to oppose any other legal remedy that the Commission may pursue, including an action pursuant to Section 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57b.

7. This agreement contemplates that, if it is accepted by the Commission, and if such acceptance is not subsequently withdrawn by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.34 of the Commission's Rules, the Commission may, without further notice to proposed respondents, (1) issue its complaint corresponding in form and substance with the attached draft complaint and its decision containing the following order in disposition of the proceeding, and (2) make information about it public. When so entered, the order shall have the same force and effect and may be altered, modified, or set aside in the same manner and within the same time provided by statute for other orders. The order shall become final upon service. Delivery of the complaint and the decision and order to proposed respondents by any means specified in Section 4.4 of the Commission's Rules shall constitute service. Proposed respondents waive any right they may have to any other manner of service. The complaint may be used in construing the terms of the order. No agreement, understanding, representation, or interpretation not contained in the order or in the agreement may be used to vary or contradict the terms of the order.

8. Proposed respondents have read the draft complaint and consent order. They understand that they may be liable for civil penalties in the amount provided by law and other appropriate relief for each violation of the order after it becomes final.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents shall provide notification of all proposed settlement terms relating to allegations made by the Attorneys General of various states, any other legal actions by government entities not cited herein, and all class action lawsuits against respondents or any of their predecessors or affiliates, pending on the date that proposed respondents sign this order, that challenge conduct similar to that challenged by the Commission in this proceeding, to the Associate Director, Division of Enforcement, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, in writing, at least ten (10) days before any such proposed settlement is submitted to a court for final approval.

VII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after the date of service of this order, and at such other times as the Federal Trade Commission may require, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

VIII.

This order will terminate twenty (20) years from the date of its issuance, or twenty (20) years from the most recent date that the United States or the Federal Trade Commission files a complaint (with or without an accompanying consent decree) in federal court alleging any violation of the order, whichever comes later; provided, however, that the filing of such a complaint will not affect the duration of:

- A. Any Part in this order that terminates in less than twenty (20) years;
- B. This order's application to any respondent that is named as a defendant in such complaint; and
- C. This order if such complaint is filed after the order has terminated pursuant to this Part.

Provided, further, that if such complaint is dismissed or a federal court rules that the respondents did not violate any provision of the order, and the dismissal or ruling is either not appealed or upheld on appeal, then the order will terminate according to this Part as though the complaint had never been filed, except that the order will not terminate between the date such complaint is filed and the later of the deadline for appealing such dismissal or ruling and the date such dismissal or ruling is upheld on appeal.
