Dear Mr. Tribeman:

We received your submissions on behalf of Outlaw Audio, LLC (“Outlaw Audio” or the “Company”). During our review, we discussed concerns that marketing materials may have overstated the extent to which Outlaw Audio products are made in the United States. Specifically, Outlaw Audio sells a mix of products that includes wholly imported products and multichannel amplifiers that are assembled in the United States of U.S. and imported parts.

As discussed, unqualified U.S.-origin claims in marketing materials – including claims that products are “Made,” “Built,” or “Manufactured” in the USA – likely suggest to consumers that all products advertised in those materials are “all or virtually all” made in the United States.<sup>1</sup> The Commission may analyze a number of different factors to determine whether a product is “all or virtually all” made in the United States, including the proportion of the product’s total manufacturing costs attributable to U.S. parts and processing, how far removed any foreign content is from the finished product, and the importance of the foreign content or processing to the overall function of the product.

The Commission has noted that “[w]here a product is not all or virtually all made in the United States, any claim of U.S. origin should be adequately qualified to avoid consumer

Additionally, beyond express “Made in USA” claims, “[d]epending on the context, U.S. symbols or geographic references, such as U.S. flags, outlines of U.S. maps, or references to U.S. locations of headquarters or factories, may, by themselves or in conjunction with other phrases or images, convey a claim of U.S. origin.” Id.

deception about the presence or amount of foreign content. In order to be effective, any qualifications or disclosures should be sufficiently clear, prominent, and understandable to prevent deception.”<sup>2</sup>

To avoid deceiving consumers, Outlaw Audio implemented a remedial action plan to update and qualify its representations. This plan included: (1) removing unqualified “Made in USA” claims from the Company website; (2) introducing qualified claims, where appropriate; (3) training staff; and (4) st
