

Making Competition Work:

Promoting Competition in Labor Markets

December 6-7, 2021

Monday, December 6, 2021

10:00 – 10:30 am Welcome and Introduction

Jonathan Kanter and Lina Khan
Department of Justice and Federal Trade Commission

10:30 – 11:30 am Litigating Labor Monopsony: Mergers and Unilateral Conduct

Participants:

Rachel Brass
Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher

Joshua Davis
University of San Francisco,
School of Law

Moderator:
Doha Mekki
Department of Justice

11:30 – 1:00 pm Break for Lunch

Making Competition Work:

Promoting Competition in Labor Markets

1:00 -2:00 pm

Labor Perspective on Competition Issues

Participants:

Lisa Frank

SEIU Healthcare, Pennsylvania

Iain Gold

International Brotherhood of Teamsters

John Marshall, CFA

United Food and Commercial
Workers

Marka Peterson

Strategic Organizing Center

Shannon Wait

Communications Workers of America

Moderator:

Miriam Larson-Koester

Federal Trade Commission

2:00 – 2:10 pm

Break

2:10 – 2:15 pm

Videos from the Public

2:15 – 3:30 pm

Contractual Restraints that Can Impede Worker Mobility

Participants:

Richard Cassidy

Making Competition Work:

Promoting Competition in Labor Markets

December 6-7, 2021

Tuesday, December 7, 2021

10:00 – 10:05 am Welcome and Introduction

10:05 – 10:30 am Morning Keynote
Joseph E. Stiglitz
University Professor, Columbia University

10:30 – 11:30 am Information Sharing Among Employers: Harms, Benchmarks & Lessons from Industry

Participants:

Laura Alexander
American Antitrust Institute

Peter Carstensen
University of Wisconsin-Madison Law

Joe Harrington
Wharton School of Business

Doug Melamed
Stanford University

Nate Miller
Georgetown McDonough
School of Business

Moderators:

Ryan Danks

Making Competition Work:

Promoting Competition in Labor Markets

12:45 – 1:00 pm

Afternoon Keynote

Tim Wu

Special Assistant to the President

1:00 – 2:00 pm

Building a “Whole-of-Government” Competition Policy

Participants:

Sharon Block

Ben Harris

