

Give & Take: Consumers, Contributions, and Charity

Federal Trade Commission and National Association of State Charities Officials Will Hold a Conference Exploring Consumer Protection Issues and Charitable Solicitation. The conference will feature speakers from academia, practitioners, charity watchdogs, donor advocates, and relevant members of the profit and nonprofit sectors.

2. What Do Donors Expect When They Contribute?

Do donors expect their contributions

Interested parties are also invited to submit requests to be panelists or recommend topics or panelists for inclusion on the agenda. Disclosing funding sources promotes transparency, ensures objectivity, and maintains the public's trust. If chosen, prospective panelists will be required to disclose the source of any support they received to carry out the research being presented. Prospective panelists should submit a statement detailing their expertise on the issues to be addressed and contact information, no later than December 30, 2016. Such requests and recommendations should be submitted electronically to consumergiving@ftc.gov (link sends e-mail).

The conference is free and open to the public(s)1(hw4(( s ))TJ 0 TcSpan <</ >>BD21)-2.56 532.68 47