
Laura Brett, Esq.
October 22, 2020
Page 2

The staff's decision is not to be construed as a determination that a violation may not have occurred, just as the pendency of an investigation should not be construed as a determination that a violation has occurred. The Commission reserves the right to take such further action as the public interest may require. The FTC appreciates your referral and the opportunity to assist in supporting the NAD.

Very Truly Yours,

~~VBURODQ~~

Carolyn L. Hann
Chief of Staff for Advertising Practices