ucts. If contracts are to be renewed and repeated, they must bring a profitable consideration to both parties.

It is suggestive of great promise that the expressions from the nations here represented all contain the recognition of the fact that the permanency of our future relationships, and the profitableness of them to us all, must depend upon the degree not alone of mutual lics of the earth to place upon their thresholds and bind as frontlets upon their brows those fundamental principles on which the fathers founded these nations and by reason of which these nations have endured and brought blessings and peace to their citizens and to us.

PAN AMERICAN FINANCIAL CONFERENCE.

We are of different races and tongues and creeds, but we have this heritage in common: Our ancestors all had the virtue and vigor of the pioneer. They sought betterment for themselves and their children. They came to a new country; they dreamed dreams, and endured hardships for the sake of their dreams. They dedicated the best years of their manhood and all of their interests to create, serve, and perpetuate a government that dedicated to the common mod of ell mon. This corvice they have rendered to their country
