THE LAWYER, PUBLIC CITIZEN NUMBER ONE

	In a ceremony of great dignity young American Indians of proved ability were accorded the "status of the brave," and thereafter shared responsibility of the tribal councils. Since it has been 30 years since I became a brave in the Tribe of Cincinnati, I am happy to share in this observance of your assumption of part of our responsibility. You have completed the academic phase of your indoctrination course which we Still reflecting on the obvious, the economic facts of life may make legal services peculiarly available to the so-called entrenched interests. Yet traditionally there have always been those ready to afford advocacy to the underdog, testimony to our eternal vigilance in preserving our country's institutions. Of the fifty-five signers of the Declaration of Independence duafted langestriker 23 mean ald among Themes Joffer
