Joined by Commissioner Rebecca Kelly Slaughter In the Matter of Harley-Davidson Motor Company Group, LLC and MWE Investments, LLC Commission File Nos. 2123140, 2223012

June 22, 2022

Today the Commission announced actions settling charges that Harley-Davidson, LLC and MWE Investments, LLC Westinghouse have engaged in unlawful repair restrictions.

As stated in the complaints, the Commission charged Harley-Davidson, which manufactures motorcycles and related equipment, and Westinghouse, which makes and sells outdoor generators and related products, with unlawfully conditioning their warranties on the use of authorized parts in violation of both the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and the FTC Act. The Commission also alleged that Harley-Davidson failed to provide a clear description of warranty terms in a single document, a violation of the Disclosure Rule.

The consent orders obtained in these matters bar both manufacturers from continuing the unlawful tying of their warranties to the use of authorized service or parts and prohibit them from misrepresenting any material facts about the warranty. Importantly, the firms are also required to policy statement mark an important step forward, demonstrating our commitment to vigorously protecting We are grateful to the Bureau of Consumer Protection staff for their excellent work driving this effort forward.

Illegal repair restrictions can significantly raise costs for consumers, stifle innovation, close off business opportunity for independent repair shops, create unnecessary electronic waste, delay timely repairs, and undermine resiliency harms that can have an outsized impact on low-income communities in particular.² It is critical that unlawful repair restrictions continue to be a key area of focus for the Commission and that we continue to use all of our tools and authorities to root out these illegal practices.

_

² Remarks of Chair Lina M. Khan Regarding the Proposed Policy Statement on