

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20580

Office of Policy Planning

January 15, 2025

The Honorable Tara Nethercott
Senator
Wyoming Senate

The Honorable Abby Angelos
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

The Honorable Steve Johnson
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

The Honorable Daniel Singh
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

The Honorable Robert Wharff
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

The Honorable John Kolb
Senator
Wyoming Senate

The Honorable Lee Filer
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

The Honorable Ann Lucas
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

The Honorable Art Washut
Representative
Wyoming House of Representatives

Re: S.B. 107

Dear Senators Nethercott and Kolb, and Representatives Angelos, Filer, Johnson, Lucas, Singh, Washut, and Wharff:

I write this letter as the Director of the Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC") Office of Policy Planning, the FTC office that provides advocacies and submits filings supporting competition and appealed that decision.²

I write to highlight a number of the Commission's evidentiary findings that you may find informative as you consider the Bill. This letter also explains that, consistent with the

State Laws Can Be a Potent Supplement to a Federal Rule

The final rule sets forth its relation to state laws and its
