Re: In the Matter of HomeAdvisor, Inc., FTC Docket No. 9407

Dear Chief Judge Chappell and Counsel:

I write to inform you of the following: On August 1, 2022, through an internal FTC repository accessible to all FTC employees, Sophia Calderón accessed a Commission document that we believe should have been screened from Complaint Counsel. The portion of the document she saw appeared to memorialize a meeting between Commissioners regarding Complaint Counsel's Motion for Summary Decision in the above-captioned case. She did not read the entire document and did not retain or download the document. The same day, she notified an employee in the Office of General Counsel. The document is not currently in Complaint Counsel's control and no other counsel of record viewed the document. Besides that it appeared to memorialize a meeting between Commissioners, Ms. Calderón has not shared any information regarding the contents of the document with other counsel of record in this matter.

Sincerely,

s/ Colin D. A. MacDonald
