Cosmetiques Corporation ("Germaine time

of its acquisition by Revlon and sold and promoted under the same or substantially similar brand names.

Your request represents that at the time the order was entered on November 19, 1982, the capital stock of Germaine Montell was owned by the British American Tobacco Company. Subsequently, on March 20, 1987, the stock was acquired by Revlon, Inc. You state that after the acquisition of Germaine Monteil, Revlon maintained Germaine Monteil as a separate corporate entity and has separately sold all Germaine Monteil products. At the time of Revlon's acquisition of Germaine Montell, Germaine Monteil was selling products only under the brand name "Germaine Monteil". However, your request notes that the order in this matter refers to four specific brand names of Germaine Monteil: Germaine Monteil, Rochas Paris, Tuvache, Inc., and Sonia Rykiel.¹

1 For the purposes of the order, a product is defined as any item of cosmetic, fragrance or soap, any accessory containing any item of cosmetic, fragrance or soap, or any related accessory, including but not limited to any applicator or brush, which is manufactured, offered for sale or sold by respondent.

In addition to the foregoing, 'product' is defined to include any item which is manufactured,
