

unfair acts or practices that violate Section 5 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45, in connection with the advertising, marketing, distribution, and selling of ecommerce programs and courses to consumers throughout the United States.

3. Defendant Kettner neither admits nor denies any of the allegations in the Complaint, except as specifically stated in this Order. Only for purposes of this action, Defendant Kettner admits the facts necessary to establish jurisdiction.

4. Defendant Kettner waives any claim that he may have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this action through the date of this Order, and agrees to bear his own costs and attorney fees.

5. Defendant Kettner and the Commission waive all rights to appeal or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order.

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Order, the following definitions apply:

A. “Clear(ly) and Conspicuous(ly)” means that a required disclosure is difficult to miss (i.e., easily noticeable) and easily understandable by ordinary consumers, including in all of the following ways:

1. In any communication that is solely visual or solely audible, the disclosure must be made through the same means through which the communication is presented. In any communication made through both visual and audible means, such as a television advertisement, the disclosure must be presented simultaneously in both the visual and audible portions of the communication even if the representation requiring the disclosure is made in only one means.

2. A visual disclosure, by its size, contrast, location, the length of time it appears, and other characteristics, must stand out from any accompanying text or other visual elements so that it is easily noticed, read, and understood.

3. An audible disclosure, including by telephone or streaming video, must be delivered in a volume, speed, and cadence sufficient for ordinary consumers to easily hear and understand it.

4. In any communication using an interactive electronic medium, such as the Internet or software, the disclosure must be unavoidable.

5. The disclosure must use diction and syntax understandable to ordinary consumers and must appear in each language in which the representation that requires the disclosure appears.

6. The disclosure must comply with these requirements in each medium through which it is received, including all electronic devices and face-to-face communications.

7. The disclosure must not be contradicted or mitigated by, or inconsistent with, anything else in the communication.

8. This disclosure must not be presented to the consumer through a hyperlink.

9. When the representation or sales pitch targets a specific audience, such as children, the elderly, or the terminally ill, “ordinary consumers” includes reasonable members of that group.

B. “Defendants” means all of the Individual Defendants and the Corporate Defendant, individually, collectively, or in any combination.

1. “Corporate Defendant” means Lurn, Inc., and its successors and assigns.

sale any good or service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from making any Earnings Claims or assisting others in making any Earnings Claims, expressly or by implication, unless:

- A. The Earnings Claims are non-misleading;
- B. At the time the Earnings Claims are made Defendant Kettner has a reasonable basis for the claims and has in his possession written materials that substantiate them;
- C. To the extent that the Earnings Claims concern the performance or profitability of specific representatives, endorsers, instructors, or customers:
 1. Defendant Kettner must Clearly and Conspicuously disclose typical customer results, and have written substantiation for such typical results; and
 2. If Defendant Kettner makes any statements characterizing or qualifying the typical results (by saying, for example, "most students do not earn income because they do not complete the program"), Defendant Kettner must have written substantiation for those statements as well;
- D. Defendant Kettner must make the written substantiation for Earnings Claims available upon request to the consumer, potential purchaser, and the FTC; and
- E. Any earnings of Defendant Kettner that forms the basis for the Earnings Claims were achieved in compliance with the law.

II. PROHIBITION AGAINST MISREPRESENTATIONS.

V. COOPERATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order, Defendant Kettner must obtain, within 30 days, a signed and dated acknowledgment of receipt of this Order.

VII. COMPLIANCE REPORTING

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant Kettner make timely submissions to the Commission:

A. One year after entry of this Order, Defendant Kettner must submit a compliance report, sworn under penalty of perjury:

1. Defendant Kettner must: (a) identify the primary physical, postal, and email address and telephone number, as designated points of contact, which representatives of the Commission may use to communicate with Defendant; (b) identify all of Defendant Kettner's businesses by all of their names, telephone numbers, and physical, postal, email, and Internet addresses; (c) describe the activities of each business, including the goods and services offered, the means of advertising, marketing, and sales, and the involvement of any other Defendant (which Defendant Kettner describe if he knows or should know due to his own involvement); (d) describe in detail whether and how Defendant Kettner is in compliance with each Section of this Order; and (e) provide a copy of each Order Acknowledgment obtained pursuant to this Order, unless previously submitted to the Commission.

2. Additionally, Defendant Kettner must: (a) identify all telephone numbers and all physical, postal, email and Internet addresses, including all residences; (b) identify all business activities, including any business for which Defendant Kettner performs services whether as an employee or otherwise and any entity in which Defendant Kettner has any ownership interest; and (c) describe in detail Defendant full name, title (if applicable), and signature.

E. Unless otherwise directed by a Commission representative in writing, all submissions to the Commission pursuant to this Order must be emailed to DEbrief@ftc.gov or sent by overnight courier (not the U.S. Postal Service) to: Associate Director for Enforcement, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580. The subject line must begin: FTC v. Lurn, Inc., Matter No. 2223056.

VIII. RECORDKEEPING

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant Kettner must create certain records for 10 years after entry of the Order and retain such record for 5 years. Specifically, Defendant Kettner for any business that Defendant Kettner individually or collectively with any other Defendants, is a majority owner or controls directly or indirectly, must create and retain the following records:

- A. accounting records showing the revenues from all goods or services sold;
- B. personnel records showing, for each person providing services, whether as an employee or otherwise, that person's: name; addresses; telephone numbers; job title or position; dates of service; and (if applicable) the reason for termination;
- C. records of all consumer complaints and refund requests, whether received directly or indirectly, such as through a third party, and any response;
- D. all records necessary to demonstrate full compliance with each provision of this Order, including all submissions to the Commission; and
- E. a copy of each unique advertisement or other marketing material.

IX. COMPLIANCE MONITORING

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for the purpose of monitoring Defendant Kettner's compliance with this Order and any failure to transfer any assets as required by this Order:

A. Within 14 days of receipt of a written request from a representative of the Commission, Defendant Kettner must: submit additional compliance reports or other requested information, which must be sworn under penalty of perjury; appear for depositions; and produce documents for inspection and copying. The Commission is also authorized to obtain discovery, without further leave of court, using any of the procedures prescribed by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 29, 30 (including telephonic depositions), 31, 33, 34, 36, 45, and 69.

B. For matters concerning this Order, the Commission is authorized to communicate directly with Defendant Kettner. Defendant Kettner must permit representatives of the Commission to interview any employee or other person affiliated with Defendant Kettner who has agreed to such an interview. The person interviewed may have counsel present.

C. The Commission may use all other lawful means, including posing, through its representatives as consumers, suppliers, or other individuals or entities, to Defendant Kettner any individual or entity affiliated with Defendant Kettner without the necessity of identification or prior notice. Nothing in this Order limits the Commission's lawful use of compulsory process, pursuant to Sections 9 and 20 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 49, 57b-1.

D. Upon written request from a representative of the Commission, any consumer reporting agency must furnish consumer reports concerning Defendant Kettner pursuant to Section 604(1) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(1).
