

Office of Commissioner

October 14, 2022

Friends,

In August, I announced my intent to resign from my position as Commissioner of the Federal Trade Commission this Fall. I am resigning effective today.

Serving on the FTC and working every day to protect consumers has been the honor

I will miss this work and all of you immensely

Farewell,

Noah Joshua Phillips