Re: Unsubstantiated Claims for Coronavirus Prevention or Treatment

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to advise you that FTC staff has reviewed your website at <https://drgrossgold.com/> on May 24, 2020. We have determined that you are unlawfully advertising that certain products or services you sell, including supplements, intravenous therapy, ozone therapy, and UVBI, treat or prevent Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19).

Some examples of Coronavirus treatment or prevention claims on your website include:

In marketing materials titled “Coronavirus & Available Natural Treatments,” you claim that “[i]t is wise to protect yourself against this outbreak” and “[h]ere are some ways to be prepared:”

- “Dr. Grossgold has also started implementing our Vitamin C immune protocol. At the first sign of flu or any potential exposure, we recommend patients to receive two or three days consecutively of potent Immunity IV therapy.”
- “We will be using several other treatments as well, like Ozone and UVBI [ultraviolet blood irradiation], which have been shown to be extremely effective against many viruses. Please contact our office for more information.”

On this same webpage, you offer for sale five packages of supplements marketed as “CORONAVIRUS PROTOCOLS.” These include, for instance, “G Immune Package 1,” which includes Argentyn 23 Vertical Spray, Biocidin Throat Spray, Immunitone Plus, ImmunoBerry Liquid, Lauricidin, and Stellar C.
